STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

As The University of Texas at San Antonio (UTSA) evolves into a great multicultural discovery enterprise, it is committed to building a highly qualified and diverse faculty in support of academic excellence. Your service as a Search Committee member or as a Diversity Access and Equity Advocate (Diversity Advocate) is instrumental to this commitment. This Faculty Recruitment Manual, developed jointly by Academic Affairs and Inclusive Excellence, provides guidance to ensure that a fair and effective standardized process is followed as you recruit colleagues to serve our diverse student population. The recruitment process is designed as a collaborative process with the result being general concurrence regarding the best qualified candidate for a position. Our collective efforts will continue to move us down the path of Inclusive Excellence.

The U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity guidelines as well as university policies, processes and procedures must be followed during every faculty search. This manual sets out the processes and procedures for Tenured/Tenure Track (T/TT) faculty searches. Failure to follow the processes outlined in this manual may result in the cancellation of a search. Cancelling a search delays hiring of new faculty and creates additional costs for your college and department. In addition, such failure could make both you and the university vulnerable to legal challenges.

FACULTY RECRUITMENT PROCESS & DIVERSITY

It is a university goal to identify, recruit, and retain highly qualified, talented, and diverse faculty for positions in all academic fields. Academic Affairs is responsible for developing and overseeing the faculty recruitment process.

Deans, Department Chairs, and Search Committees are responsible for ensuring that equal opportunity is afforded to all candidates to further the university’s goal of identifying and recruiting diverse, qualified and talented faculty.

- Tips on Recruiting Diverse Applicants:
  - Incorporate inclusive excellence language in your position descriptions.
  - Maximize traditional and nontraditional search strategies.
  - Communicate the availability of positions to a broad, diverse, non-main stream and innovative advertisement platforms.
  - Expand discipline association involvement in the search process.
  - Actively search for diverse candidates by using the committee’s network and resources.
  - Incorporate structured application and review processes.
  - Develop and execute strategies to attract qualified women and members of underrepresented groups.
  - Use the Accelerated Faculty Diversity Hiring Programs when applicable.
FACULTY POSITIONS: RESPONSIBILITIES

The University Strategic Plan and subsidiary planning processes at the college and departmental level, shall guide faculty recruitment activity and hiring decisions. The Dean has the ultimate authority in the recruitment process for ensuring the recruitment of highly qualified and diverse faculty. The Deans will establish and manage the recruitment budget for their respective college in order to achieve faculty recruitment objectives.

Deans shall stay informed about faculty hiring needs in the college through continuous consultation with the Department Chairs and through other means, such as recommendations from outside program reviewers, and benchmarking with other institutions. Deans shall maintain a prioritized list of faculty hiring needs in the college.

TENURE/TENURE TRACK HIRING PROCESS 2019-2020

The recruitment process is designed as a collaborative process with the result being the best-qualified candidate for a position. Faculty, Department Chairs, and Deans actively collaborate toward that end.

Position requests are done by chairs and deans through the faculty request portal, http://provost.utsa.edu/resources/dean.html. The Provost grants final approval of position requests. UTSA uses STARS, an online automated employment system to post and hire faculty positions. The STARS system is managed and supported by Human Resources. Faculty recruitment contacts in HR are Ron Fosmire (ext. 4256) and Cheryl Huguley (ext. 8221).

Participants in the Search Process

Deans

- Review and approve recommendations from the Department Chairs for Search Committee members and the Search Committee Chair. Diversity should be taken into consideration when appointing members to a Search Committee, using the recommended faculty search committee composition. The Dean has final approval for who serves on a Search Committee. Review and approve Recruitment Plan before submission to Academic Affairs.
- Receive and consider hiring recommendations from the Department Chair leading to the hiring of a candidate.
- Cancel a search at any point if the search process has not produced a pool of candidates of sufficient quality and diversity, or if the search process has not fully complied with the requirements of this policy.
Department Chairs

- Upon receiving approval from the Dean, initiate the search process by submitting recommendations of Search Committee members to the Dean. Diversity should be taken into consideration when appointing members to a Search Committee by using the recommended faculty search committee composition.
- Review and approve Recruitment Plan before submission to the Dean.
- Solicit information to contact potential candidates for a position from faculty members in the department not on the Search Committee. Potential candidates should be directed to apply via STARS.
- Receive and review the recommendations submitted by the Search Committee regarding the most qualified candidates.
- Forward or communicate recommendations to the Dean and ensure that candidates forwarded to the Dean reflect the University’s goal for faculty appointments.
- Retain search files for each faculty search in the department office (three-year retention).

Search Committee

- Develop a Recruitment Plan for the search.
- Attend Search Committee training each time appointed to a search committee but only once in a year.
- Incorporate inclusivity search practices received from the trainings.
- Actively recruit qualified diverse candidates.
- Screen applicants, identify leading candidates, and advise the Department Chair and the Dean concerning candidate qualifications and suitability for the position.
- Develop, review and submit a list of candidates for phone/Skype and/or On-Campus interviews to the Department Chair.
- Interview candidates.
- Submit review of candidates to the Department Chair.

Search Committee Chair

UTSA INCLUSIVE FACULTY RECRUITMENT TIPS-

Inclusivity and Excellence are two core values of UTSA. Recruiting, and retaining highly qualified, faculty for all academic fields is paramount to being a model University as it relates to teaching, research and student success. To this end, below are some additional proven best practices to assist in your quest to be inclusive in recruiting high quality faculty to UTSA.

Before the Search

☐ Faculty commitment. This is the most important resource as faculty make up over 70 percent of the persons evaluating, implementing policies, recruiting formally and informally, referring and designing position responsibilities and position descriptions for the recruited faculty and is where the decisions are made to hire.

☐ Review College and Department annual hiring data. Having an understanding of your College and Departments faculty diversity (gender and race/ethnicity, etc.) for tenure/tenure track faculty will assist you in developing your strategy for recruitment. It is important to know year to year how your College and Department is doing in regard to diversifying your faculty.

☐ Attend the search committee training to acquire knowledge in regard to EOS, HR, and the Office of the Provost Search policies, processes and procedures.

☐ Review the position description advertisement to ensure that Inclusive Excellence language is incorporated throughout the announcement. Please visit https://www.utsa.edu/inclusiveexcellence/programs/recruitment/inclusivehiringlanguage.html for more information and to review examples.

☐ Identify search committee and discipline specific faculty networks to circulate the position announcement to promote diversity.

☐ Create a recruitment plan that ensures a comprehensive search process emphasizing diversity and high quality throughout. This may include, but is not limited to, the placement of the ads in locations where underrepresented candidates may access.

☐ Create a diverse search committee consisting of men, women and members from underrepresented groups who can bring multiple perspectives to the committee; and who are fully committed to the institution’s goal of recruiting excellent diverse faculty.

☐ Expand your organizational associations. It is important to have ongoing relationships with local and national underrepresented organizations (Southern Region Education Board (SREB) and Hispanic Association of Colleges and Universities (HACU), Historically Black Colleges and University's (HCBUs), The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB), The Ph.D. Project, etc.) and special interest groups as well as institutions that produce graduate students of color. These relationships can pay huge dividends when recruiting underrepresented scholars as personalization is “key” in achieving successful hires.

During the Search

☐ Encourage all search committee members to reach out to high potential diverse candidates to encourage them to apply for open positions. Networking and hands on recruiting efforts can be very effective.
☐ Cast a wide net to advertise; underrepresented groups and organizations, listservs, bulletin boards, professional networks, contacts, conferences, visiting diverse scholars who may have presented on campus, visit institutions that produce large numbers of underrepresented PhDs.

☐ Provide a faculty contact for communication throughout process, as well as information about the University, College, and the San Antonio area.

☐ Reinforce to the candidate that if they have any questions that arise once they return home to please feel free to contact the UTSA search point of contact.

☐ Emphasize that creating a welcoming and inclusive environment is very important at UTSA. Provide the opportunity for candidates to meet with key groups and other diverse faculty on campus.

☐ Provide an opportunity for the candidates to meet with the Vice President for Inclusive Excellence. This will provide the candidates with an additional university contact and an opportunity for general discussion.

After the Search

☐ Evaluate the search process; what went well during the search? What, if anything, could have been done better to enhance a more diverse outcome?

☐ Follow up soon with the new hire to introduce them to “key” College and Department contacts and to promote a smooth transition and successful onboarding.

☐ Introduce the new faculty hire to the Tenure Track Networking Club https://www.utsa.edu/inclusiveexcellence/programs/retention/tenure-track-networking-club/index.html to serve as an additional resource to enhance their tenure track journey.

☐ Consider sponsoring on and off campus events to showcase the new faculty hires research, teaching and service.

☐ Continue to develop internal data bases and systems to identify and hire diverse talent, i.e. point potential faculty to the Stealth Recruitment Portal https://www.utsa.edu/inclusiveexcellence/programs/recruitment/inclusive-recruitment/index.html.
