Adobe is hosting a Creative Jam at University of Texas!

From Fri, Nov 6 to Fri, Nov 13 you get the chance to compete with a team in a fast-paced, live designathon using Adobe XD, our user experience design app.

What's this all about? You will hear an inspiring speaker and learn about Adobe XD and then tackle a real-world challenge. Teams get 3 days to solve the problem, using design thinking and user experience principles. Top ten teams present the project to a jury of industry experts to get a chance for your team to win a $250 Amazon Gift Card each (plus bragging rights!)
