Complete a Natural Language Processing Task (NLP) using a collaborative online programming environment which significantly reduces the time students need.

Facilitate the development of programming skills for Natural Language Processing.

Students will significantly reduce the effort needed to learn programming techniques for NLP.