Ask a Question and Leave the Podium

Randall Manteufel
Mechanical Engineering - Randall.manteufel@utsa.edu

Teaching Modality
Face-to-Face

Active Learning Technique Steps

1. Ask the students a question.
2. Repeat the question to be sure everyone understands.
3. Leave the podium and walk around the room.
4. Tell the class you need 5 correct answers.
5. Students raise their hands when they have an answer, so go look at their answer.
6. If their answer is correct, then say X correct so everyone knows the countdown.
7. If their answer is incorrect, give hint or tell them to keep working on it.
8. Return to the podium and explain the correct answer as well as common incorrect answers.

Benefit to Student

1. Keeps more students engaged.
2. Students learn by doing and answering questions.
3. Address common misunderstandings and common mistakes with the class.