Learning Through Project Management: Day of the Dead Exhibit

Alegra Lozano | Honors College | Face-to-Face

Intended Target Population
All classifications, all majors.

Applicable Settings for Technique
In the classroom or in the professional setting, where team-based projects are utilized.

Active Learning Technique / Learning Curve
Group project, including working in teams to design, develop, and launch a public exhibit. Project included the use of a group charter as a contract, and peer assessments to learn how to provide professional feedback and receive constructive feedback.

Student Learning Outcome
- Project management
- Creative courage
- Agency through accomplishment

Student Benefits and Impact
- New Skills, team learning
- Feeling empowered in own learning
- Personal connections to material and project
- Confidence building with communication skills and teamwork
- Resume building